

both signals rise across the safe range, then jump at the transition

